DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

1. Applicant's arguments filed 6/27/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive as indicated below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

2. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. The newly added limitation "the annular rib is located radially outward from an inner diameter of the bobbin and does not adjoin the inner diameter of the bobbin" on lines 8-10 of claim 1 is considered as new matter since it was not disclosed in the original specification.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. It is unclear as to what the applicant is claiming by the limitation on lines 8-10 of claim 1 for the same reason indicated above.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claims 1-5 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Perach.

In regard to claim 1, Perach discloses a tubeless actuator comprising a frame (40), a primary plate (42,44) disposed within the frame; a secondary plate (34,36) disposed within the frame opposite the primary plate; and a bobbin (38) disposed within the frame between the primary plate and the secondary plate; an annular rib extending from the bobbin, an annular groove established by the secondary plate, and wherein the annular rib engages the annular groove to maintain alignment between the secondary plate and the bobbin (see picture below).

annular rib engages the annular groove

In regard to claim 2, the tubeless actuator further comprises a plunger (72) slidably disposed within the bobbin; and wherein the plunger slides in direct contact with the bobbin.

In regard to claim 3, the tubeless actuator inherently comprises or appears to include a secondary air gap (see Fig. 1) established between an inner wall established by the secondary plate and an outer wall established by the plunger (72)

In regard to claim 4, the plunger defines a distal end and the actuator further comprises an annular notch (about 78) established around an outer periphery of the distal end of the plunger.

In regard to claim 5, the tubeless actuator further comprises a frusto-conical spring (76) disposed around the distal end of the plunger, and wherein the frusto-conical spring engages the annular notch.

In regard to claim 8, the bobbin of the above tubeless actuator further comprises a flange, wherein the flange would inherently have an outer periphery where a wedge-shaped protrusion extends therefrom; at least one wedge-shaped opening established by the secondary plate; and wherein the wedge-shaped protrusion engages the wedge-shaped opening to maintain alignment between the secondary plate and the bobbin (see picture below).

The above indicated interpretation of wedge-shaped protrusion and opening are reasonable due to the pointing angled piece being receive in the opening thereof.

Conclusion

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

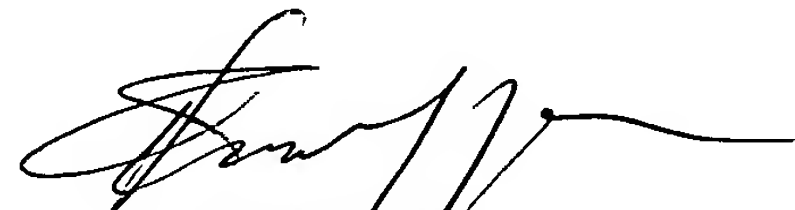

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
